A Hebrew publishing company is working on a Hebrew version of the Bible. They have 51 students at the Bible college and 40 believing Russian Jews in Bible schools. Indigenous Bible college professors asked him to train believing Russian-Jews to become pastors. Now we have a Hebrew School of Theology—Keter Torah in Israel to teach believing Russian Jews. In a few weeks, he had five congregation-based Bible schools. And then the risen Christ said to His disciples: Then the Lord Jesus said to His disciples—Peace be with you, as the Father has sent Me, I also send you (John 20:21).

We thank and praise God for you—and there is so much more to do.

Slavic Gospel Association
Dr. Robert W. Provost, SGA President

As a faithful SGA partner, you are participating importantly in God’s plan to bless all the families of the earth—the Jews and the Gentiles, including Muslims. You are helping reach those still lost in five Slavic countries, as Muslims, countries, and in Israel—the land of the Bible. While the conflict in Ukraine largely fell off the news media’s attention, faithful SGA-sponsored missionary pastors continued to minister to thousands of refugees and preached the Gospel to them. Tensions between the West and Russia continued to be an issue of concern, but by God’s grace, SGA ministries continued to serve and equip evangelical churches with the resources they need for effective ministry.

The following is a synopsis of our key ministry activities throughout the 2015 calendar year. May you be blessed and encouraged to read of how the Lord has used your faithful partnership to accomplish much for His glory!

Training and Equipping Faithful Christian Servants to Keep Building the Lord’s Church
Establish Your Ward or Your servant, as that which produces revenue for You (Psalm 119:10).

During 2015, faithful SGA ministry partners gave sacrificially to help support our sponsored seminaries and Bible institutes in the five Slavic countries, as Muslims, countries, and in Israel—the land of the Bible. In March 2015, SGA had the great privilege of inviting 50 Russian-speaking pastors and ministry leaders from the CIS and Israel to participate in the Shepherds’ Conference Inerrancy Summit. The goal was to send a clear statement reaffirming commitment to the infallibility, inerrancy, and authority of the Bible—the Word of God.

Reaching Children, Youth, and Families with the Love of Christ

...as for our brothers, they are messengers of the Church, a city on high. (2 Corinthians 10:5).

SGA partners continued to faithfully pray and support of sponsored missionary pastors in the CIS—35 missions in all. There are 130 Russia, 106 in Ukraine, 44 in Belarus, 36 across Central Asia, 12 in the Caucasian region, and one in Israel working with the many reports we’ve been receiving from local pastors of unchurched, unsound people hearing the gospel, repenting of their sins and believing in Christ, being baptized, and added to the church as a direct result of these ministries.

SGA partners continued to sacrificially support SGA-sponsored ministries to children and youth in the east part of the country. Some notable developments in the 2015 calendar year included the starting of a bachelor’s degree program through Novosibirsk Biblical-Theological Seminary. 15 students are enrolled. Two of Novosibirsk’s professors and their board chairman completed their doctoral classes at Baptist Bible Seminary in Clark’s Summit, Pennsylvania, and are working on their dissertations and comprehensive exams. An online certificate program began at Odessa Theological Seminary, which will further expand the impact of the ministry to those who wish to travel to Odessa for classes. Other key training programs in the Russian language at the Bible college in Israel. An extension center began in the 2015 calendar year. Immune Family

Youth in the churches in the lands of Russia continue to be both the present and future of the churches, exhibiting a passion for Christ and reaching their own communities. In 2015, the Russian Youth Ministry team in Moscow remained focused on training and equipping youth ministry leaders from all corners of this vast nation, and conducted the annual national Youth Conference for Youth in Sacrifice, and 1,953 youth attended. Sunday school as a result of these experiences.

Youth Ministry

Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in the fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, and the child will be a wise referee (Proverbs 14:26).

SGA partners continued to provide literature, children’s Bibles and Christian books, Provision of Russian-language Bibles, Evangelistic Christian Literature, and pastoral study resources continued as a high priority in 2015. Overall, nearly 40,000 Bibles and other Christian Literature was distributed over the year. SGA also stepped up work in the area of online Russian-language resources available through our SGA Media website. We have acquired the rights to post the electronic version of Dr. MacArthur’s Commentary on Romans and other key titles in other languages. The SGA Media website has 5,700 visitors each month.

SGA-Sponsored Companion Ministry

...The Lord’s full of compassion and is merciful (James 5:1).

In addition to efforts in Ukraine through the Crisis Evangelism Fund, SGA sponsored missionary partners in the Russian Federation to help support the Fund to distribute funds to needy families in Tbilisi, Ukraine, and in Central Asia. In Ukraine, 17 missionary partners distributed food and aid.
In 2015, SGA had the great privilege of inviting 50 Russian-speaking pastors and ministry leaders from the CIS and Israel to participate in the Shepherds’ Conference Inerrancy Summit. The goal was to send a clear statement reaffirming commitment to the infallibility, inerrancy, and authority of the Bible—the Word of God.

Bringing the Life-Changing Gospel and Planting New Churches

As far as we know, there are messengers of the Church, a key in Christ (2 Corinthians 4:3).

SGA partners continued to faithfully pray for and support of sponsored missionary pastors in the CIS—335 in all. There are 130 in Russia, 106 in Ukraine, 64 in Belarus, 36 across Central Asia, 12 in the Caucasian region, and one in Israel working with Russian-speaking congregations. Many are planting churches in towns and villages that had no ministry. More than a ton of aid and evangelistic literature was included in all aid distributions, and women’s conferences, and a team also helped construction in the Russian city of Voronezh.

SGA partners continued to sacrificially support SGA-sponsored ministries to children and youth throughout the year. We are also thankful that 826 children were reached. At least 444 children repented and 17,216 children were reached with the Gospel, including 146 adults! We are also thankful that 12,101 of these children are from unbelieving families impacted by the political violence in the eastern part of the country.

Youth Ministry

Let us now look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith and purity, show yourself an example of those who believe (1 Timothy 4:12).

Youth in the churches in the lands of Russia continue to be both the present and future of the church. Establishing a mission for each Church to reach the young souls of the youth. In 2015, the Russian Youth Ministry team in Moscow remained active and mapping youth ministry leaders from all corners of this vast nation, and conducted the annual National Youth Conference in Moscow for salvation, and 1,953 began attending Sunday school as a result of their experience at camp. More than that, 476 adults began attending outreach church for the thousands of individuals and families impacted by the political violence in the eastern part of the country.

Then in 2010, we sent a Jewish graduate of Irpen Biblical Seminary in Kiev, Ukraine, to me, however, with so many lost Russian Gentile souls all over the world, I hadn’t given much thought to people in five Slavic countries, five Muslim countries, and in Israel.

We thank and praise God for you—and there is so much more to do.

As a faithful SGA partner, you are participating importantly in God’s plan to bless all the families of the earth—the Jews and the Gentiles, including Muslims. As we look back on 2015—a year filled with many challenges—we rejoice in great thanksgiving. The Lord truly accomplished great things across Russia and her neighboring countries, and so we thank and praise God for you—and there is so much more to do.
